

1 DELEGATE CHABOT: Mr. Chairman, inadvertently
2 one line was left out, and it makes some change in the
3 amendment. May I read the words?

4 I have given the amendment as corrected to Dr.
5 Philips, and I hope before the evening is over we will have
6 it printed.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: How long ago was it given?

8 DELEGATE CHABOT: Just after we had recessed
9 for supper. That was about a little over two hours ago.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Can the secretary find out what 11 the status of the amendment is?

12 We will have to pass on to another amendment.

13 Delegate Chabot, I understand there has been some
14 confusion. Apparently the amendment is not printed yet.
15 Is the Chair's understanding correct that the omitted
16 words would appear between lines 9 and 10, and would read,
17 "so that the list is no longer sufficient"?

18 DELEGATE CHABOT: Yes, sir.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: In the absence of objection, the 20 Chair will assume that Amendment No. 27 so reads, and will 21 substitute the correct printed copies as soon as it is
